Provincial Government Bills

1st Session, 42nd Parliament

Most Recent Sitting was July 22, 2020

Next Sitting Scheduled for September 14, 2020

Bill 31, Efficient Local Government Act, 2018

(Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing)

This Bill is essentially identical to Bill 5 with the additional clause to overcome the Superior Court of Justice Ruling on September 10, 2018 that the Act as it affects the City of Toronto violates the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and is therefore null and void.

- Second Reading debated September 17, 2018.

Bill 171, Building Transit Faster Act, 2020

(Minister of Transportation)

This bill is intended to expedite the planning and construction of 4 rail transit projects, namely the Ontario Line (formerly referred to as the downtown relief line), the Scarborough Subway Extension (to Scarborough Town Centre), the Yonge Subway extension (to Richmond Hill) and the Eglinton Crosstown West Extension (from the unfinished western terminus of Mt. Dennis station to the Toronto International Airport. The bill would exempt the projects from certain development permit requirements within the respective corridors so that things that pose a danger to construction can be removed immediately, things that pose an obstruction to construction can be removed more quickly. The Bill will also eliminate the need for certain expropriation hearings that would otherwise impede the projects.

- Royal Assent received July 8, 2020

Bill 186, Employment Standards Amendment Act (Infectious Disease Emergencies), 2020

(Minister of Labour, Training and Skills Development)

This bill (consisting of only 4 pages) amends the Employment Standards Act, 2000 to grant the right to workers to have a leave of absence without pay due to being ordered to remain in isolation or quarantine due to the Covid-19 pandemic, or if the worker is needed to provide care or assistance to prescribed individuals or any other reason prescribed by the regulations. The regulations can have a retroactive impact. The statute came into full force and effect as of March 19, 2020.

- Royal Assent received March 19, 2020.
